Le Passé Simple

Ce guide vous fournira des explications en français et des exercices en anglais pour maîtriser les formes affirmatives, négatives et interrogatives du passé simple.

Partie 1 : Affirmative

Sujet + Base du verbe + 'ed' ou le preterit du verbe (verbes irréguliers)

Sujet	Passé Simple	Exemples
I	(base du verbe) + "ed"	I sang a song every morning. (action habituelle)
You	(base du verbe) + "ed"	You spoke French fluently. (capacité permanente)
He/She/It	(base du verbe) + "ed"	He lived in London. (situation actuelle)
We	(base du verbe) + "ed"	We ate dinner at 7pm. (habitude quotidienne)
You	(base du verbe) + "ed"	You played sports on weekends. (activité régulière)
They	(base du verbe) + "ed"	They studied English at school. (action continue)

Verbes irréguliers:

La liste des verbes irréguliers est à maîtriser, pour évoluer sereinement dans l'apprentissage de la langue.

Quand l'utiliser ?

Utilisez le passé simple pour :

- Décrire des actions terminées dans le passé, à un moment précis : "I arrived at 5pm."
- Raconter des histoires au passé : "He went on a adventure..."
- Parler d'expériences uniques : "We visited the museum last summer."
- Exprimer des états temporaires dans le passé : "She lived in a different city."

Partie 2 : Le Passé Simple Négatif

On ajoute "didn't" (pour tous les sujets sauf la 3ème personne du singulier), "didn't + verbe" à la base (pour les questions) ou "didn't" (pour la 3ème personne du singulier) devant la construction habituelle.

Sujet	Passé Simple Négatif	Exemples
I	didn't + (base du verbe)	I didn't drink coffee in the morning. (action refusée)
You	didn't + (base du verbe)	You didn't study on Sundays. (habitude absente)
He/She/It	didn't + (base du verbe)	He didn't work at night. (situation non-actuelle)
We	didn't + (base du verbe)	We didn't like vegetables. (préférence négative)
You	didn't + (base du verbe)	You didn't sleep enough. (habitude manquante)
They	didn't + (base du verbe)	They didn't go to the movies often. (activité peu fréquente)

Quand l'utiliser ?

Utilisez le passé simple négatif pour :

- Exprimer des interdictions, des refus, des désaccords ou des absences d'actions ou de situations.

Partie 3 : Le Passé Simple Interrogatif

On ajoute "Did" + sujet + (base du verbe) ou (verbe irrégulier au passé simple).

Sujet	Passé Simple Interrogatif	Exemples
I	Did I	Did I eat breakfast this morning? (vérification d'action)
You	Did you	Did you enjoy the concert? (demande d'avis)

He/She/It Did he/she/it Did it rain yesterday? (vérification d'événement)

We Did we Did we finish our project on time? (confirmation d'action)

You Did you Did you see my keys? (recherche d'objet)

They Did they Did they understand the instructions? (demande de compréhension)

Verbes irréguliers:

N'oubliez pas, pour les verbes irréguliers, la forme interrogative peut suivre des règles différentes. Nous devons absolument les apprendre !

Quand l'utiliser ?

Utilisez le passé simple interrogatif pour :

- Poser des questions sur des actions terminées dans le passé, à un moment précis.
- Demander des informations ou des confirmations sur des expériences passées.
- Vérifier des événements ou des situations du passé.

Part 3 : Deuxième Conditionnel (Conditionnel Irréel) (Second Conditional (Unreal Conditional))

○ Forme (Form):

- Si + imparfait + conditionnel
- If + past simple + would + base verb

○ Utilisation (Use):

- Exprimer une situation hypothétique qui a peu de chance de se produire dans le présent.

• Examples :

- If I won the lottery, would travel around the world. (Si je gagnais à la loterie, je voyagerais à travers le monde.)
- If you lived in France, you would speak French fluently. (Si tu habitais en France, tu parlerais français couramment.)
- We would go to the beach if it wasn't raining. Nous irions à la plage s'il ne pleuvait pas tant.

Exercise : Second Conditional (Unreal Conditional)

- Write sentences using the second conditional.

1. If I lived on a beach, (what would I do?) (e.g., go swimming every day.)

2. If I traveled through the time, (where would I go?) (e.g.; go in the future)

.....

3. If you could speak French fluently, (what could you do?) (e.g., travel to France more easily.)

.....

Text

Last weekend, Sarah went on a camping trip with her friends. They packed their tents, sleeping bags, and food supplies and drove to the campsite. They set up their tents, built a campfire, and roasted marshmallows. They also went hiking, swimming in the lake, and playing frisbee. On Sunday afternoon, they packed up their things and drove back home. Sarah had a wonderful time and made many happy memories with her friends.

Dialogue

A: Hi Emily, how was your weekend?

B: Hi John, it was great! I went to the beach with my family.

A: Sounds fun! What did you do there?

B: We built sandcastles, swam in the ocean, and had a picnic lunch.

A: That sounds like a perfect day. Did you see any interesting wildlife?

B: Yes! We saw a group of dolphins swimming in the distance.

A: Wow, that's amazing! What about you, John? What did you do this weekend?

A: I stayed home and relaxed. I watched some movies and read a book.

B: Sounds like a relaxing weekend too.

(They continue chatting about their weekends.)
