

Mastering Question Asking in English

Golden Rule for Asking Questions

Si le point ne fait PAS référence à une action (pas de verbe faire), alors la question commence généralement par :

→ Is / Are / Am / Was / Were

Ceux-ci sont utilisés pour les Conditions, les Descriptions, l'Identité, l'Age, le Temps, le Lieu et des états similaires.

Types of English Questions

Type of Question	Use	Example
État / Condition	Is / Are / Am / Was / Were	Is she happy? / Were they tired?
Action simple présente ou passée	Do / Does / Did + base verb	Do you play piano? / Did he come?
Actions en cours	Is / Are / Was / Were + verb-ing	Is she studying? / Were they eating?
Temps Perfect (Present/Past)	Have / Has / Had + past participle	Have you seen it? / Had they left?
Modaux	Can / Will / Should + base verb	Can you drive? / Will they join us?
Questions d'information (WH)	WH-word + auxiliary/modal + subject	What do you want? / Where is she?
Yes/No avec 'to be'	Is / Are + subject + complement	Is he your brother?
Tag Questions	Statement + (auxiliary/modal + pronoun)?	She's coming, isn't she?

Quick Decision Guide

Posez-vous les questions suivantes :

1. S'agit-il de faire quelque chose ? → Use Do/Does/Did
2. S'agit-il d'être (un état ou une description) ? → Use Is/Are
3. S'agit-il d'une action en cours ? → Use Be + verb-ing
4. S'agit-il de Possibilité ou du Future ? → Use Modal (can, will, should...)
5. Est-ce que c'est un Temps Perfect ? → Use Have/Has/Had + past participle
